2. True Conclusions Require Faith (Numbers 13:30-31)

“ Ten spies emphasized the obstacles instead of the opportunities and concluded that Israel was too weak to conquer the enemy. They walked by sight and not by faith. Unbelief blinds you to God’s greatness and magnifies your own weakness. ”

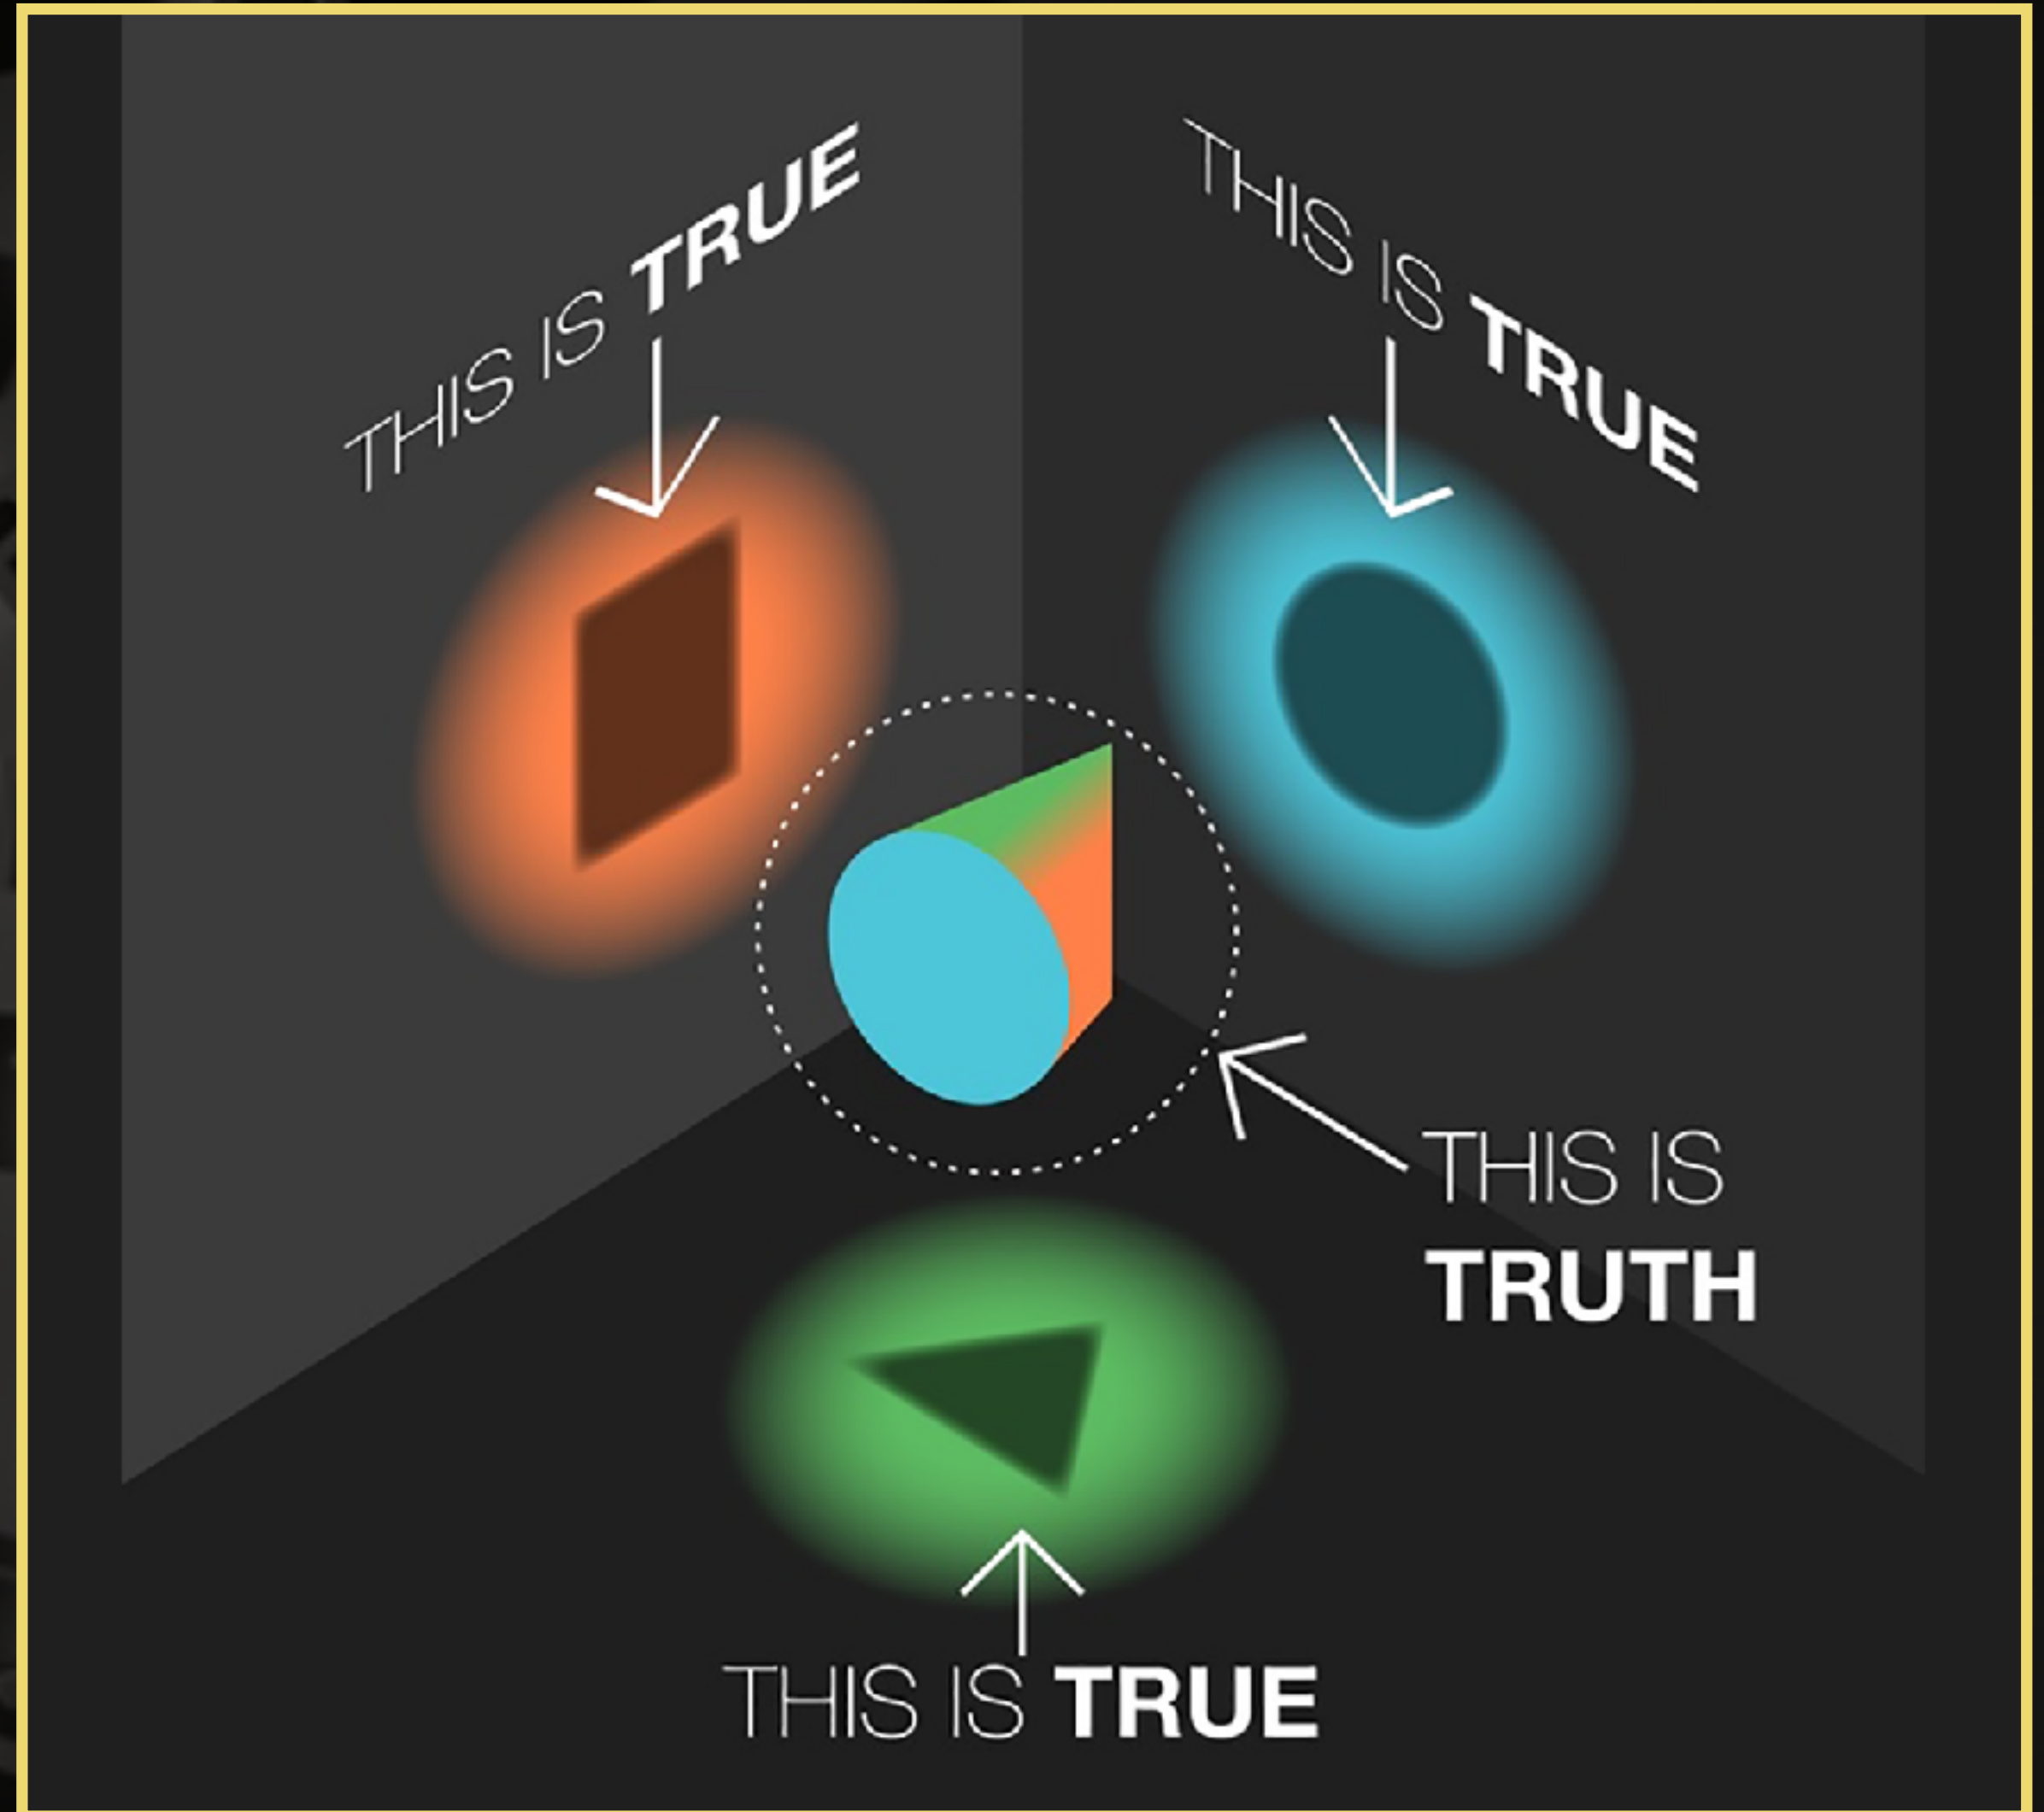

Warren Wiersbe, With The Word

2. True Conclusions Require Faith (Numbers 13:30-31)

But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

3. Unbelief Produces A False Report (Numbers 13:31-14:4)

“ Unbelief often presents itself as being "factual" or "practical" or "down to earth." Yet, the most factual, practical, and down to earth thing we can do is trust the word of the living God. Their unbelief was not according to the facts, but despite the facts. ”

David Guzik, Enduring Word Commentary

3. Unbelief Produces A False Report (Numbers 13:31-14:4)

“ Make no mistake; what Israel rejected here was a walk of faith. If God was going to lead them into a deeper trust than they had before, they wanted no part of it. If He made it all easy, that was fine with them - but they did not want a walk of faith. ”

4. Faith Produces True Encouragement (Numbers 14:5-10)

“ These two men, Caleb and Joshua, brought the same facts as the others. What is the difference in their report? The difference is in their interpretation of the facts because they included God. ”

True And False Reports

Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things.

Philippians 4:8
