1 Samuel 27-30

There Is Something Better For You

1 Samuel 27-30

There Is Something Better For You

“ In his discouraged despair, David is at a place that many find themselves at some point in their lives. He says, “I give up. I can’t take this anymore. The stress of trusting God is too much, and I have to find protection somewhere else.” ”

David Guzik, Enduring Word Commentary

2. It Is Not Found In A Double Life (1 Samuel 27:8-12)

“ I undertake no defense of this conduct of David; it is all bad, all defenseless; God vindicates him not. It is false to say that, because these things are recorded, therefore they are approved. In all these transactions David was in no sense a man after God' s own heart. ”

“ When you are discouraged, ask a trusted Christian friend to pray with you, and seek the Lord’s direction. Take time to talk about your feelings with your friend. You will gain a clearer perspective. Make no impulsive decisions about significant matters. Follow this advice: “Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart” (Psalm 27:14). ”
