Psalm 143

How A Servant Of God Prays In Distress

Psalm 143

How A Servant Of God Prays In Distress

1 Peter 4

12 Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you;

13 but rejoice to the extent that you partake of Christ's sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy.

Psalm 143

How A Servant Of God Prays In Distress

1. A Servant Prays Because God Is Faithful And Righteous (v1-2)

Psalm 143

How A Servant Of God Prays In Distress

1. A Servant Prays Because God Is Faithful And Righteous (v1-2)

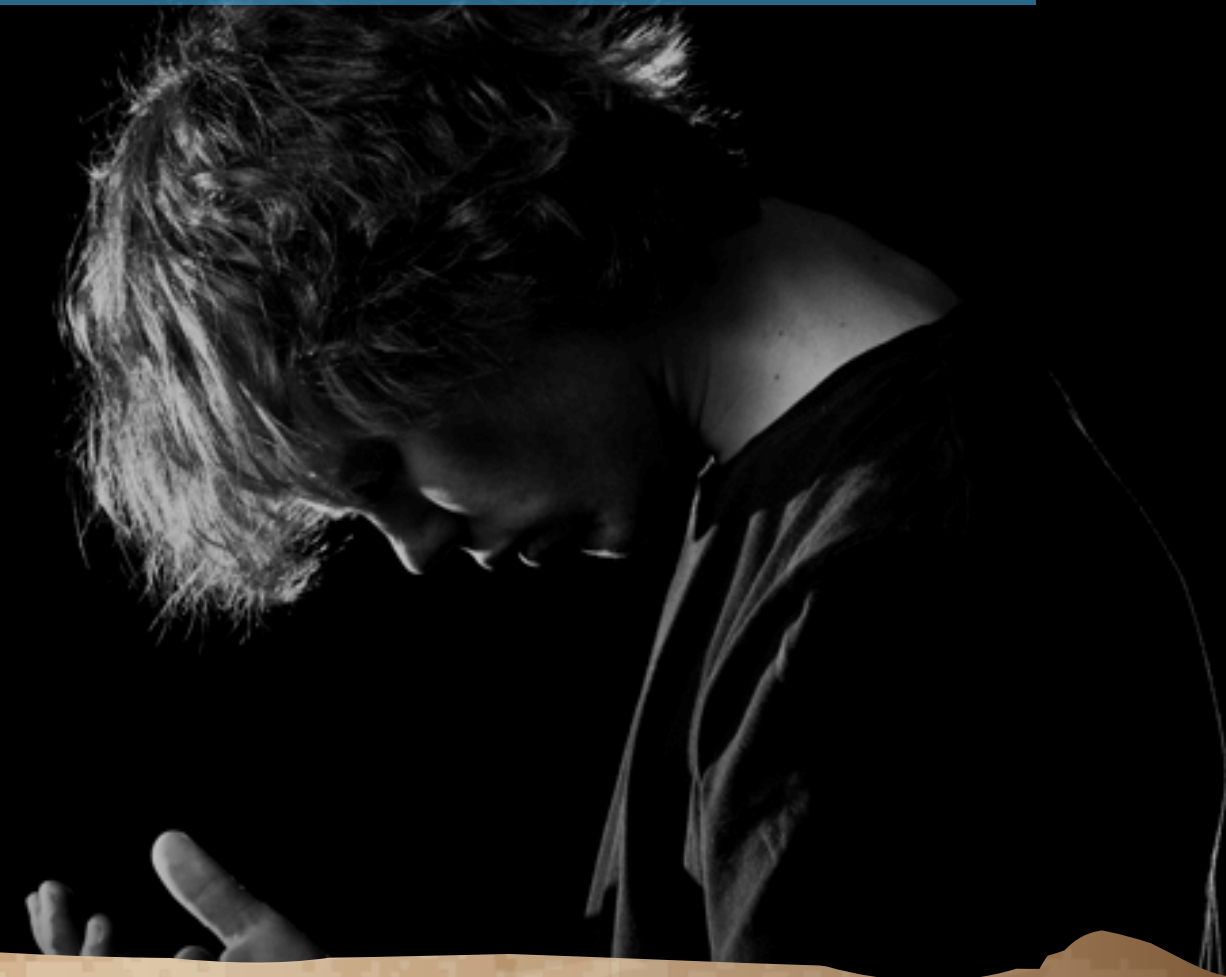

“ He does not want God to give him justice. That would be disastrous. All are sinners. No one is able to produce by himself the perfect righteousness that God demands. So man must cast himself on the grace of God. ”

William MacDonald, Believer's Bible Commentary

Psalm 143

How A Servant Of God Prays In Distress

1. A Servant Prays Because God Is Faithful And Righteous (v1-2)

I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Luke 18:14

Psalm 143

How A Servant Of God Prays In Distress

1. A Servant Prays Because God Is Faithful And Righteous (v1-2)

2. A Servant Talks To God About Their Distress (v3-4)

Psalm 143

How A Servant Of God Prays In Distress

2. A Servant Talks To God About Their Distress (v3-4)

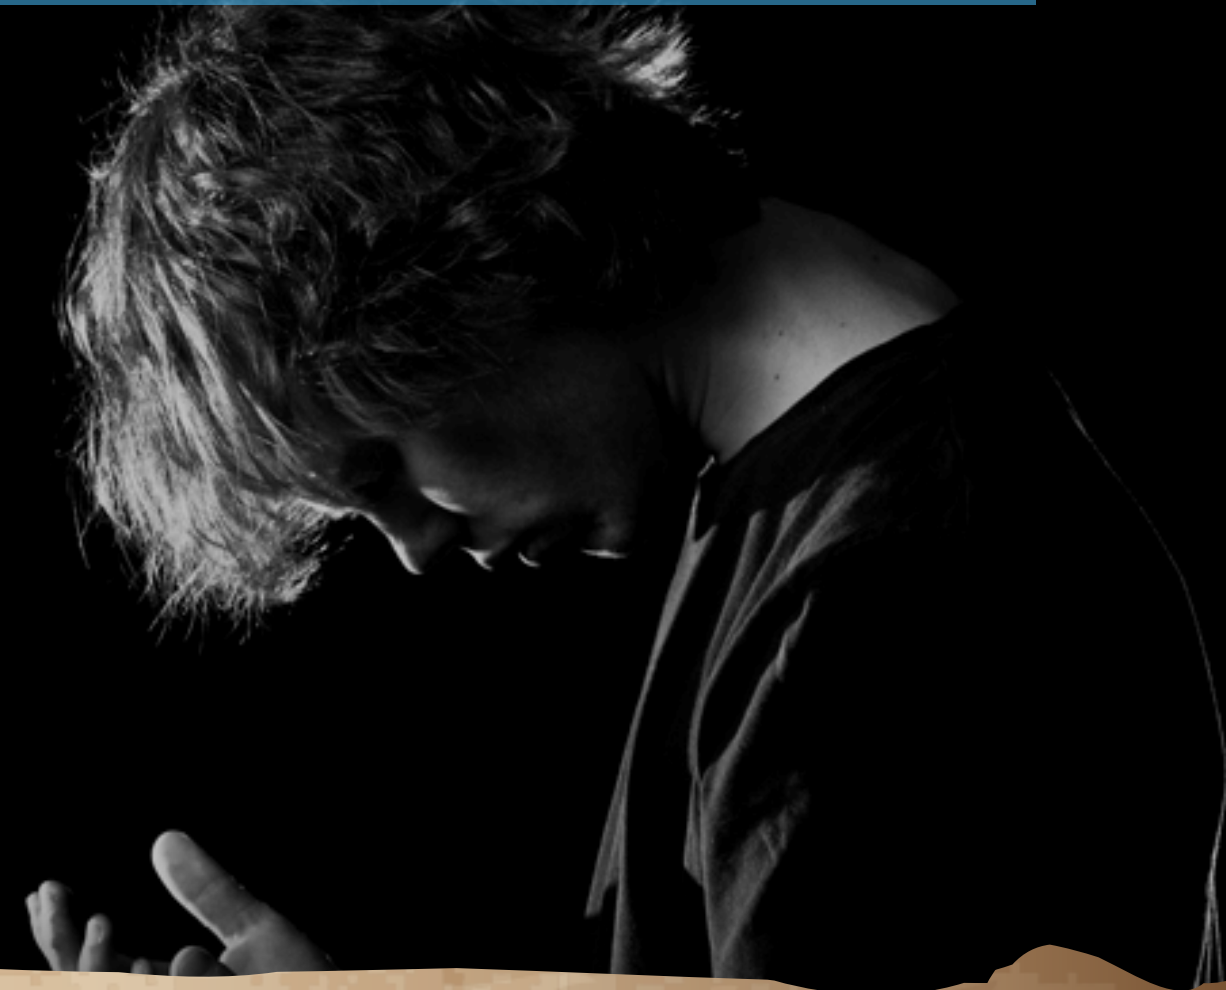

“ Are any of you passing through this trying experience? Does it not encourage you to find that somebody else has been this way before you? The road is very rough, but there is a man's footprint there, the footprint of a man whom God greatly loved? Ah, dear friends, in those deep sorrows you are not alone. ”

Charles Spurgeon, Sermon On Psalm 143

Psalm 143

How A Servant Of God Prays In Distress

2. A Servant Talks To God About Their Distress (v3-4)

1 Peter 5

6 Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of
God, that He may exalt you in due time,
7 casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.

Psalm 143

How A Servant Of God Prays In Distress

1. A Servant Prays Because God Is Faithful And Righteous (v1-2)
2. A Servant Talks To God About Their Distress (v3-4)
