This treachery, foreseen by Christ, was transformed into a support of the disciples' faith. When the incident took place, as predicted, they knew that Jesus was all that He had declared Himself to be.

But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would betray Him.

Final Lessons

Up to the very hour of his treachery, Judas was protected by the Saviour whom he betrayed. Had Jesus openly revealed what He knew about Judas, it is likely that the men would have turned on him.

Final Lessons
From Jesus

When one considers the privileges that Judas had enjoyed and realizes how little impression they made upon his heart and mind and what the final result was, these things might well cause each one of us individually to examine ourselves and search our hearts in the presence of God.

Final Lessons
From Jesus

This is the way all of us glorify God, by faithfully doing what He calls us to do. In our Lord's case, the Father's will was that the Son die for lost sinners, be raised from the dead, and then ascend to heaven.

1 John 3

16 By this we know love, because He laid down His life for us. And we also ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17 But whoever has this world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his heart from him, how does the love of God abide in him? 18 My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

4. You Must Love Like Jesus (v33-35)

John 13:18-38
Final Lessons
From Jesus

May we not well challenge ourselves and each one ask the question in his or her own heart, “How have I answered to this command of my Savior? Am I characterized by love for my brethren in Christ?”

Poor Peter! He would have died for Jesus right then but he later failed because his devotion was based on emotion. Emotion is vital to the Christian walk, but it can't be its power or foundation.
