Each of these offerings reveals what is essential for or what results from a relationship between a redeemed sinner and a holy God.

Thomas Constable, Expository Notes Of Dr. Constable

The background of the image is a dark teal color with a fine, grainy texture, resembling aged paper or a book cover. It has subtle variations in tone and some faint, darker spots.

Hebrews 13

15 Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is,
the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name.

16 But do not forget to do good and to share, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

Luke 21

1 And He looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury, 2 and He saw also a certain poor widow putting in two mites. 3 So He said, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all; 4 for all these out of their abundance have put in offerings for God, but she out of her poverty put in all the livelihood that she had."

Even the poorest of persons could offer a home-made flat cake or a wafer of bread as a sacrifice to God, and come to know him more fully in the breaking of bread.

R. K. Harrison, Tyndale Old Testament Commentaries

The memorial portion that was burned by the priest on the altar showed the worshiper that God had accepted his offering. God accepts the offerings of those who are in fellowship with Him.

Matthew 10

41 He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward. And he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water in the name of a disciple, assuredly, I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward."

Note that God never wants leaven (a picture of sin) or honey (man's glory and not God's). But He does want salt, which speaks of purity, and frankincense, which is praise to God. What a privilege it is to build a Christian life that brings glory to God!
