1 Chronicles 13-14
Consult With God

A group of godly men with good intention would soon make a significant mistake because they took counsel with each other, but not with the Lord.

David Guzik, Enduring Word Commentary

1 Chronicles 13-14
Consult With God

And when Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is set to go, then the sons of Kohath shall come to carry them; but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. "These are the things in the tabernacle of meeting which the sons of Kohath are to carry.

Consult With God

How is it that such supernatural directions and assistances are not communicated now? Because they are not asked for; and they are not asked for because they are not expected; and they are not expected because men have not faith and have no spiritual intercourse with their Maker.

Adam Clarke, Adam Clarke's Commentary
