

Psalm 75

Giving Thanks For God's Certain Judgment

Psalm 75
Giving Thanks For
God's Certain
Judgment

1. God Is Near Even When Judgment Seems Far (v1-3)

Psalm 75
Giving Thanks For
God's Certain
Judgment

1. God Is Near Even When Judgment Seems Far (v1-3)

God's children continue to sing His praises because they are sure God knows what He is doing. The world needs our witness, and worship is the greatest witness of all. The next time you are disturbed by the evil in the world, pause and praise the Lord.

Matthew 23

5 But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries broad and enlarge the borders of their garments.

6 They love the best places at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues,
7 greetings in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.'

Matthew 23

11 But he who is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.

2. God Warns Against Self Exaltation (v4-7)
3. God Will Fully Judge The Wicked (v8)
4. God Lets Us Choose Judgment Or Glory (v9-10)

“As for me” (NASB) indicates decision on the part of the psalmist. Asaph had participated in the sanctuary worship and helped lead the music, but he, too, had to make a decision to obey the Lord and tell others about Him.
