David Guzik, Enduring Word Commentary

We can worship God for His judgment because we have confidence in His fairness. As was the case with Sodom and Gomorrah, God will never make a city a ruin unless the judgment is deserved, and God has made provision for the righteous.

Revelation 16

NLT

8 Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, causing it to scorch everyone with its fire.

9 Everyone was burned by this blast of heat, and they cursed the name of God, who had control over all these plagues. They did not repent of their sins and turn to God and give him glory.

Daniel 3

NLT

25 “Look!” Nebuchadnezzar shouted. “I see four men, unbound, walking around in the fire unharmed! And the fourth looks like a god!”

27 Then the high officers, officials, governors, and advisers crowded around them and saw that the fire had not touched them. Not a hair on their heads was singed, and their clothing was not scorched. They didn’t even smell of smoke!

Each of these will be ultimately fulfilled in that day. But they can be substantially fulfilled right now!

We can praise God for these things right now! And as we do, we bring some of the glory of that day to pass in our lives right now.

Isaiah 2 (NLT) NLT

11 Human pride will be brought down, and human arrogance will be humbled. Only the Lord will be exalted on that day of judgment.

12 For the Lord of Heaven's Armies has a day of reckoning. He will punish the proud and mighty and bring down everything that is exalted.

13 He will cut down the tall cedars of Lebanon and all the mighty oaks of Bashan.

14 He will level all the high mountains and all the lofty hills.

15 He will break down every high tower and every fortified wall.

16 He will destroy all the great trading ships and every magnificent vessel.

Thomas Constable, Expository Notes Of Dr. Constable

The same pride which held Moab back from seeking security in the divine promises in an earthly crisis will exclude Moab from partaking of the heavenly promises.
