1. God Expects You To Obey Him In Your Personal Life (Hosea 1)

David Guzik, Enduring Word Commentary

We can assume that Hosea would never marry a prostitute except by the commandment of the LORD.

It showed a lot of obedience for him to actually carry out this difficult command.

14 You are my friends if you do what I command.

15 I no longer call you slaves, because a master doesn't confide in his slaves. Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me.

2. God Expects You To Obey Him In Your Family Life
(Hosea 1)

Tony Evans, The Tony Evans Bible Commentary

Don't overlook Hosea's response of full obedience. He submitted himself and his family to be an object lesson for Israel and would experience firsthand what it means and how it feels to love someone who is unfaithful.

2. God Expects You To Obey Him In Your Family Life (Hosea 1)

When Hosea married Gomer, she did not give up her career as a prostitute. It wasn't that Hosea found a fallen woman and through love and kindness restored her to virtue. He married a prostitute – no doubt hoping she would give up her sin and be devoted only to him – and she stayed a prostitute.

38 If you refuse to take up your cross and follow me, you are not worthy of being mine.

39 If you cling to your life, you will lose it; but if you give up your life for me, you will find it.

David Guzik, Enduring Word Commentary

Hosea is directed to love, even when it must have been hard to love. The Scriptures show us that love is largely a matter of the will, and when we direct ourselves to love someone God tells us we must love, it can and will happen.

3. God Expects You To Represent Him (Hosea 3)

Thomas Constable, Expository Notes Of Dr. Constable

Hosea's heart was broken, and he felt the most unutterable sorrow that a man can feel, when his wife abandons him. He learned how God felt, and he denounced kings, priests, and people out of that broken heart that mirrored the broken heart of God.

Imagine the anguish of buying back your own wife who had willingly left you! Yet, in this action is a picture of the unfailing, persistent love of God. Moreover, it is what God does for us through Jesus Christ, who bought us—not with money—but with his own blood

Titus 2

NLT

11 For the grace of God has been revealed, bringing salvation to all people.

12 And we are instructed to turn from godless living and sinful pleasures. We should live in this evil world with wisdom, righteousness, and devotion to God,

13 while we look forward with hope to that wonderful day when the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, will be revealed.

14 He gave his life to free us from every kind of sin, to cleanse us, and to make us his very own people, totally committed to doing good deeds.

This means much more than knowledge about God; it refers to a personal knowledge of God. The Hebrew word describes a husband's most intimate relationship with his wife. To know God is to have a personal relationship with Him through faith in Jesus Christ.

What you don't know can hurt you!

The priests and prophets did not teach the Word or help the people know God. The religious services were popular, but the people were being destroyed for lack of true spiritual knowledge. It was only a religious routine.

NLT

- 1 After saying all these things, Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so he can give glory back to you.
- 2 For you have given him authority over everyone. He gives eternal life to each one you have given him.
- 3 And this is the way to have eternal life—to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, the one you sent to earth.
