Spiritual Gifts

1. Understand That The Spirit Will Always Glorify Jesus
(v1-3)

Paul contrasted their experience as unconverted idolaters with their present experience as Christians. They had worshiped dead idols, but now they belonged to the living God. Their idols never spoke to them, but God spoke to them by His Spirit, and He even spoke through them in the gift of prophecy.

John 14

NLT

25 I am telling you these things now while I am still with you.

26 But when the Father sends the Advocate as my representative—that is, the Holy Spirit—he will teach you everything and will remind you of everything I have told you.

John 16

NLT

13 When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own but will tell you what he has heard. He will tell you about the future.

14 He will bring me glory by telling you whatever he receives from me.

15 All that belongs to the Father is mine; this is why I said, 'The Spirit will tell you whatever he receives from me.'

Enthusiasm or ecstasy or “inspired” utterance do not necessarily indicate spirituality. By “inspired” utterance, I mean any utterance that the speaker claimed came from God, not necessarily a truly inspired new revelation from God. Paul’s original readers needed to pay attention to what the person speaking in such a state said.

NLT

4 Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function,

5 so it is with Christ's body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.

6 In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you.

Acts 19

NLT

11 Now God worked unusual miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them.

Thomas Constable, Expository Notes Of Dr. Constable

Believers who have spectacular gifts, ministries, or effectiveness are not necessarily more spiritual than Christians who do not.

Each believer, not just certain believers, makes a unique contribution for the common good.
